HELD FOR THE GRAND JURY.

Edward Morris and Harvey Lunsford, who were arrested a few days ago on suspicion of stealing a barrel of whisky, from the property of Joel M. Cochran & Co., from the Potomac yards, were given a hearing before Justice Caton yesterday afternoon. Lawyers Edmund Burke and Howard W. Smith appeared for the prisoners during the hearing. The accused were sent on to the grand jury.

Mr. Samuel G. Brent represented the commonwealth and the hearing occupied an hour or more. From facts learned it is not clear that the boys arrested are the guilty parties, expected from the confession they are purported to have made to Chief Goods and a rail-road detective, and during the hearing Mr. Burke claimed that the confession was obtained with the understanding that these people would be held blameless for the robbery. The boys denied making any confession of the nature claimed. It was not proved that these boys either had or sold any whisky, or even that the whisky ever reached Alexandria either in bulk or small quantities. They were held in $1,000 bail each for the next grand jury. The chief of police, however, seems to think he has convincing proof of the guilt of the accused and the officers of the force are collecting a train of evidence, which they think is good ground for the suspicious entertained.

ABUSIVE CITIZEN.

Yesterday evening a saloonkeeper who came to the station house to watch developments in the case of two young men, who were accused of stealing a barrel of whisky, from the Potomac yards, north of this city, became very abusive to an officer who was standing in front of the station house and with him as an audience he made a general attack on the entire force. Although there were three or four officers there he kept this up till Chief Goods arrived and then he thought he would admonish this official with the result that he was picked up bodily and landed in a cell. He was released on $10 collateral. This morning the case came up for a hearing and Officer Beach, Lieut. Bettis and Chief Goods, testified to the abuse showered upon them and the determination of the saloonkeeper, who said he intended getting even with the officers in question. Justice Caton in deciding the case said that the offender had pursued the wrong course in an effort to "get even," as he said, with officers who had done him wrong. He said as long as he was in the office he could protect the officers of the police department from insult, and said they were abused enough anyhow for many causes. He imposed a fine of $10, which was paid.

WANTED HIM RELEASED.

Yesterday a colored woman who represented herself as the mother of Harvey Davis, colored, who it will be remembered is serving a term in jail subject to the chain gang and who escaped and was captured a day or two ago and had 40 days more added to his sentence by Justice Caton, approached the police justice and asked the smallest amount for which her son could be released. The justice told her the limit. She said she was so sorry her son had gotten into this difficulty at this time, as he had joined the church and was such a help toward bringing the wayward to repentance and in other ways. She told the justice that her boy would not have attempted to escape if he had not been put on the gang, and it so happened that this body of old offenders were operating in the neighborhood of the church where so many of his brethren and sisters lived. She left the office of the police justice and Harry perhaps will stay where he is, partly persuaded to remain by a ball and chain.

WORTHLESS CHECK.

Her anxiety to rent a room caused Mrs. Lena Smith, of Washington, to lose her natural caution yesterday afternoon, and she cashed a check for $20 for her prospective boarder. The check proved worthless, and Mrs. Smith lost $4, the difference between the check and the amount charged for the room.

The prospective roomer was well-dressed and gave the name of Henry Heiner. He offered to pay the rent in advance and gave a check. The rent was $16, and Mrs. Smith gave him the difference. The check was drawn on the "Metropolitan Bank" of Alexandria.

RECKLESS BICYCLISTS.

The reckless riding of bicyclists on King street especially between Fairfax street and the river is causing considerable comment. At night most of them have no lights on their wheels and they travel down the hill at a rapid gait. As a number of children loiter about that section of the city and as it is a thoroughfare for those who seek the wharves for a cool breeze, the authorities might see to it that the law, at least covering bicycles, is enforced.

EXCITEMENT ON QUEEN STREET.

Quite a crowd was attracted to the corner of Queen and Pitt streets about noon today, occasioned by a former resident of this city, but who now lives in Philadelphia, unmercifully beating the child of a well known citizen of Pitt street. The woman in question used a lash as her weapon for which she will have to answer in police court tomorrow morning.

THE WEATHER.

There appears to be no chance for an immediate change in the temperature, which has remained high both day and night for several days past. The mercury at 8 o'clock this morning registered 85° and by noon it had reached 92°. A light breeze, however, made the heat less oppressive.

There are many imitations of DeWitt's celebrated Witch Hazel Salve but just one original. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

CRAB SALAD AT THE ELKTON.

Reduction Sale of Low Shoes, Pumps, Oxfords and Colonial ties, all new effects, latest styles. This is an opportunity, don't miss it. J. A. Marshall & Bro.

BIG LIQUOR CASE MOVES ON.

In the Court of Appeals in Richmond yesterday, a writ of error and supercedas was issued in the case of the Robt. Porter Brewing Company against the State Corporation Commission, in the so-called Rosemont liquor cases.

The Porter Brewing Company objects to the decision of the commission, which by brewers and distillers and wholesale dealers was denied the rights accorded to retailers in the shipments of liquor into "dry" districts. This is the case in which both parties in the "dry" towns of Marion, Radford, Saltville and Abingdon appealed from the decision of the commission, the towns objecting to the sale and delivery of liquor by the retailers, and the wholesalers objecting to the privileges accorded the retailers.

The case may be heard at the Staunton term of the court next month, appeals from the commission having precedence in the Court of Appeals.

OLD ESTABLISHED HOUSE.

Located at the northeast corner of Royal and Cameron streets, and doing a huge and immense business is the wholesale liquor and general commission establishment of W. A. Johnson & Co. For the past forty years this enterprising firm has held a flattering business trade in this city and throughout the surrounding country. During this period the business was conducted by Mr. James B. McWilliams, who died some time ago, who everyone will remember as one of the most charitable men that ever lived—never turning a deaf ear to an appeal for help, but on many occasions being badly imposed upon. The business is still in the same family and in charge of Mr. John J. McWilliams, his brother, whom has lived in this section all his life and who is loved and respected by those who know him. Mr. John Dwyer is his able assistant in the business and adds strength to an already stable house. Their specialties are Gibson's Son & Co's pure whisky one of the best line of goods on the market. This house has been a constant advertiser and friend of the Gazette ever since the business was established.

HOSPITAL BENEFIT.

The committee on arrangements for Alexandria Day at Luna Park, for the benefit of the Alexandria Hospital, held an enthusiastic meeting at the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce last night. Mayor Palf was unanimously asked and agreed to proclaim Wednesday, the 19th instant, a holiday. Every Sunday school scholar of this city and Washington will be invited to the park to enjoy the liberal entertainment which will be provided for them. The committee to wait on Capt. Baldwin will visit Fort Myer this afternoon. Capt. Slaymaker has received formal invitation to have his command give an exhibition drill on the occasion. Mr. E. E. Downham has called a meeting of the Friendship Veteran Fire Association for Monday evening, when arrangements for an exhibition by their old engine will be completed. It is hoped that every reader of this paper will vie with the committee and make this the greatest benefit the hospital has had.

GATHERING EVIDENCE.

The chain of evidence is gradually tightening around the negroes who were last week turned over to the county authorities for highway robbery. A letter has been received by a hardware merchant in this city from a Mr. A. M. Roberts, of Fauquier, and has been turned over to the chief of police. In the letter Mr. Roberts states that early last week, while near Spring Park, he was robbed by three negroes of his watch and a fountain pen. He says he would be able to identify the negroes. He gives a description of the watch, which tallies with the memorandum of the police. Mr. Roberts offers $5 reward for the recovery of the watch and $10 for the arrest of the highwaymen.

DEATHS.

John E. Posey, the three-months-old son of Mr. Denale and Mrs. Mary R. Posey, died at his parents' home on Duke street last night.

Major Hall, the fifteen-months-old son of Mr. Luther Hall, died last night at the home of his grandfather, Mr. L. W. Hoffman, No. 2014 Franklin street.

Mrs. Mary Palmer, of Alexandria county, mother of Sheriff William H. Palmer, died at her home yesterday, aged 85. She was the widow of the late James Palmer, of Loudoun county. Two sons survive.

Mrs. Rothmund, mother of Mr. Carl Rothmund, of this city, died at Anacostia, D. C., on Wednesday.

RESCUED TWO FROM DROWNING.

An item appeared in these columns a day or two ago that Mr. Chester Scott had saved an old lady from drowning at Colonial Beach. It should have read that while a canoe was being paddled near the excursion steamer a gentleman and lady was thrown overboard, caused by the swells from the steamer, and that Mr. Scott rescued them both.

OFFICE FINISHED.

The new office of the Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Company has been completed, and Mr. C. W. Wattles, the agent, will move into it in a day or two. The factory for the manufacture of vinegar, the promoters of which have leased the two buildings at the corner of Prince and Union streets, is a large undertaking. These gentlemen have extensively improved the property and expect to begin operation within a month, and will employ a large number of people.

BASEBALL TOMORROW.

There will be a game of baseball on the fair grounds tomorrow evening at 5:30 o'clock between the Virginia Stars and the Cardinals. The batteries will be Stars, Smith and Tremery; Cardinals, Schofield and Cockrell. Both teams are well matched and have this season played three very closely contested games.

The Hess Oxfords, "the guest," reduced $4.00, $5.00 and $6.00 grades go at $3.90. J. A. Marshall & Bro., 422 King street.

QUANTITY OF WOOL STOLEN.

A. H. Thomas, proprietor of Hayfield farm, Fairfax county, has reported to the police that his storage room in Fairfax county was recently robbed of a large quantity of wool. He said in the letter that three fleeces were stolen a few nights ago from the storage room. He also said that the robbery has been a system and he had several times laid traps to catch the thieves, without success. Mr. Thomas, therefore, seeks the aid of the police in apprehending the thieves. So far as known, none of the wool was disposed of here, although a search is being instituted.

MOVING PICTURES.

At the Alexandria Amusement Company's hall tonight there will be two new and laughable reels exhibited. One, "Love Will Find a Way," and "One Man Baseball." In addition "The Whits Square" will be shown. This is a great cowboy and Indian show. Come out and see the pictures.

At the Opera House there will be a high class vaudeville and Leroy Krause, the famous tenor singer, will be the attractions along with Miss Ruby Bamey, the song and dance artist. See advertisements of both shows.

ORDER OF RECHABITES.

The 56th annual session of the High Tent, Independent Order of Rechabites, will be held at Leesylvania, Md., Sept. 8. At this session there will be a general revision of the laws governing the order. Mrs. J. B. Hughes has been elected the representative from Persimmon Tent of this city, and Mr. T. R. Spicer, alternate, Mr. Lambert D. Lyles of this city is an officer of the high tent.
